Dr. Eric Jackson Remains with Bandits as Official Team Dentist

11/23/2015 11:28 AM

ROSEMONT, Ill. – The Chicago Bandits and Dr. Eric Jackson, DDS today announced that the two organizations have extended their partnership with each other for the 2016 season. Dr. Jackson will continue to be the Official Team Dentist of the Chicago Bandits.

“We are honored to extend our partnership with Dr. Jackson,” said Bandits General Manager Aaron M. Moore. “Dr. Jackson has been with us since 2013 and has been a tremendous partner since coming on board and has seen the value in partnering with our organization as we continue to grow our brand regionally.”

The partnership provides Dr. Jackson with a stadium presence, a digital presence at chicagobandits.com, the rights to use team logos and marks and various hospitality opportunities.

“Everyone in the Chicago Bandits organization is not only talented, both on and off the field, but are genuinely great people as well,” said Dr. Jackson. “I’m so fortunate to be associated with this great ball club!”

Like the previous two seasons, Dr. Jackson will again partner with the Bandits to provide free t-shirts to the first 500 fans that attend the team’s 2016 home opener. Additional information will be available once the schedule is released.

About Chicago Bandits

Since 2005, the Chicago Bandits have been members of the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league. Located in Rosemont, the Bandits provide an opportunity for female fastpitch players to further their careers at a professional level, and the roster has included such names as Jennie Finch, Stacy May-Johnson, Monica Abbott and Tammy Williams. The three-time NPF Champions, who are owned by Bill Sokolis, play at The Ballpark at Rosemont, the only stadium in the country built for a women’s professional team. The 2016 season will be the Bandits 12th season in the NPF.
